Dear Mr. Dulles

We are indeed grateful for the outstanding lecture which you delivered to the Air War College National Security Forum on 27 April 1959.

The substance of your presentation formed the basis for considerable discussion during the Forum. Everyone was of the opinion that your coverage of "The World Situation" was most thorough, interesting and very much to the point. I am certain that the information and ideas you left with us will be of continuing value to all participants.

Your assistance to our educational program here at Air University is greatly appreciated. Please accept our sincere thanks for your contribution to a successful Forum week.

Sincerely

WALTER E. TODD
